

Asian Business Association Announced its 2010 Board of Directors

Los Angeles, CA - The Asian Business Association (ABA) recently installed its 2010 Board of Directors. The new board represents many diverse businesses such as advertising, automotive dealership, banking, distribution, energy, information technology, legal, pharmaceutical, political and private equity.

Leading the organization for 2010 are: Co-Chairs Ronald Wong, Imprenta Communications Group and Gary Yamauchi, Tri-Star Vending; Vice Chair Andy Wong, Wells Fargo; Secretary Jennifer Renshaw, Janco & Winnex; and Treasurer Alec Salemon, BWS Capital Partners.

Other Board of Directors are: Robert Branzuela, Honda of Downtown LA; Steve Choy, Comper IT; Bill Imada, IW Group Inc.; Richard Jun, Lee Tran & Liang; Aden W. Kun, Silver Ridge Capital; Stephen Lee, Waterstone Group; Raymond Poon, Hygeia Apothecary; and Grace Whitcomb, Southern California Edison.

Last year, ABA produced many programs that benefited their membership and the public at large. Events like "Meet the Buyers", Minority Certification seminars, Real Estate forum and "Access to Capital" helped increase membership. At its Annual Awards Banquet, ABA helped many businesses by having a successful Business Matchmaking event.

While many companies and non-profit organizations are cutting back, ABA continues to grow and help its members along the way. "We are honored and thrilled about the new board dynamic for 2010" said Dennis Huang, ABA Executive Director. "This new board make up will continue to build strong programs for ABA and our membership. It will also give more resources and empower the Asian business community."

About the Asian Business Association:

Founded in Los Angeles in 1976, ABA, a non-profit organization, has taken a proactive role in the advancement of Asian American business owners by helping them gain access to business opportunities as well as providing them with a voice that represents their views to government officials at all levels.

The ABA promotes economic development through its educational conferences, seminars and workshops. These interactive programs are designed to present entrepreneurs with the information, resources, skill-sets and networking opportunities that will help them grow their businesses and successfully compete in the global marketplace.
